

Falls Remain One of the Leading Causes of Traumatic Occupational Deaths

AIS IS NOW OFFERING 3 NEW FALL PROTECTION COURSES!

1. Fall Protection End User

Dates: Held Every other Tuesday

Upon completion of this training the student will be familiar with:

1. Fall hazards.
2. Methods of keeping a worker from falling
3. What happens during a fall
4. Hands on demonstration of personal fall arrest system equipment
5. Understanding self-rescue techniques
6. The need to report fall hazards
7. The importance of housekeeping

2. Fall Protection Competent Person

Dates: Held Every other Wednesday

Upon completion of this training the student will be one who is capable of identifying existing and predictable hazards in the surroundings or conditions that are hazardous or dangerous to employees and is authorized to take prompt corrective action to eliminate them.

1. Recognize when and where fall protection is needed.
2. Achieve 100% fall protection while working at heights.
3. Understand the fall protection hierarchy.
4. Select the right fall protection system for the job.
5. Proper use of the fall protection and rescue systems.
6. Care and maintenance of all the equipment in each system.
7. The importance of a plan before each job.

3. Fall Protection Industrial Rescue

Dates: Held Every other Thursday

Upon completion of this training the student will be one who is capable of identifying existing and predictable hazards in the surroundings or conditions that are hazardous or dangerous to employees and is authorized to take prompt corrective action to eliminate them:

1. Fall hazards.
2. Methods of rescuing a worker that has fallen
3. What happens during a fall
4. Hands on demonstration of personal fall arrest and rescue system equipment
5. Understanding and selecting proper rescue techniques
6. Prepare a proper rescue plan
7. Anchorage requirements and rigging for rescue